Communication

In order to respect the confidentiality of the information communicated by individual members, Pack2Go Europe will publish aggregated information of progress made by the members on each of the performance measures, taking into account the weight of packaging materials processed by individual member. These weighted average annual statistics will be published on the web site of Pack2Go Europe.

Partnership with governments, agencies and other organisations

Pack2Go Europe will co-operate with governments, their agencies, and other stakeholders, both directly and through its Members, in the development of proposed legislation and other regulations in relation to litter, packaging waste treatment, and initiatives to promote environmental care, to increase the understanding of environmental issues and to disseminate good practice.

Citizenship

Pack2Go Europe and its Members will contribute to the education of consumers and users of packaging regarding the proper use and disposal of packaging for food and drinks consumed on-the-go. It will do so by providing understandable and relevant information - on the package, through the internet and, wherever possible, through educational programmes for local communities where the Members' premises are established.
